Indian Capital Market Sector

Deep Dive

What is Capital Markets & How they work ?

Capital markets are where money meets opportunity !

- Capital markets are a crucial part of a functioning modern economy because they move money from the people who have it to those who need it for productive use.

Key functions

- Mobilization of Savings & Capital Formation
- Liquidity for Investors
- Transaction Efficiency
- Price Discovery
- Risk Management & Diversification

Capital Markets Ecosystem

A vital bridge connecting those who have surplus funds (savers, pension funds, and institutional investors) with those who need capital to grow (businesses, entrepreneurs, and governments)

Evolution of India's Capital Markets

A vibrant capital market played key role in India's economic growth

India's global GDP ranking has climbed to 6th rank in 2025 from 13th rank in 2000.

- Transition from savings to investment economy got facilitated by emergence of strong and well-regulated capital market
- Robust capital market opened new avenues of fund raising through equity and bond issuances accelerating India's economic growth

Growing domestic saving fuelling India's capital markets

Growing pool of domestic savings is increasing shift from physical assets to financial assets, thereby resulting in -

1. Resilient capital market supported by domestic flows
2. Liquidity support for stable financial ecosystem
3. Alternative sources of capital for corporates
4. Wealth creation for the Indian middle class

According to IMF* by 2031 India is projected to cross US$ 6.7 trillion GDP mark, which can results in US$ 2.0 trillion of Gross Domestic savings (assuming 30% savings rate), which is close to 80% growth from 2024 base.

India's Capital Market has outshined global major economies

Strong performance of India's capital market has helped attract foreign and domestic flows

Growing trend in Indian households for financial assets

- Flow of new household financial savings tripled over last 5 years
- Key drivers include - ease of transaction, superior liquidity, well regulated market, lesser transaction costs and higher return potential (and low real interest rate).
- Very low ratio of equity as % of household asset indicates continued growth opportunity.

Flow of net household financial savings towards equities and mutual funds

Equities as % of household assets

Digitisation: Ultimate catalyst of India's Financialization of Savings

Digitisation of Identity, Payment and Data helped address friction of geography, friction of time, and friction of cost

- Historically, domestic savings in India were skewed heavily toward physical assets like real estate and gold.
- Digitisation has revolutionized India's capital markets by facilitating instant, paperless, and cashless transactions, significantly increasing retail investor participation.
- Digitisation has helped new tech-led platforms such Zerodha, Groww, Upstox, Dhan etc to increase the penetration (reach), and efficiency (time and cost) of capital market

Rise of digitization boosted demat account growth in the last five years

- Demat account grew at a steady rate from 2015 to 2020; and digitisation helped explosive growth since 2021 till 2025.
- The explosive growth can be attributed to Covid lockdown, emergence of discount brokers, V-Shape recovery of market post Covid crash.

Direct Beneficiaries

Brokerages, Exchanges, Depositories

Demat penetration steadily growing, still below global peers

Increasing retail and institutional participation has boosted exchange volume

Equity Volume grew at 23% CAGR since FY 16

India is emerging as one of the most dynamic retail investor markets globally with:

- Rapid adoption
- Youthful investor base (*median age ~32yr in 2024)
- High digital trust
- Strong regulatory frameworks
- Growing financial awareness

Derivative Volume grew at 67% CAGR since FY 16

Direct Beneficiaries

Brokerages, Exchanges, Depositories

Robust growth of mutual fund AUM

- By March 2026, India's mutual fund AUM hit Rs 76.81 lakh crore, growing at 22% CAGR since March 2016.
- SIP contribution grew at 26% CAGR to reach Rs 3.49 lakh crore for FY26 from Rs 43,921 as of FY16-17
- AUM originating from Beyond Tier-30 (B30) cities grew from Rs 5 lakh crore in 2019 to an impressive Rs 17 lakh crore by 2025, highlighting the deep penetration of digital distribution networks and independent financial advisors.
- At the moderate growth rate of 17% compared to historical growth of 22%, MF AUM is expected to cross INR 300 trillion by FY 2035.

Direct Beneficiaries

Asset Managers, Wealth Managers, and RTAs

Under penetration offers white space for growth

India's mutual fund penetration is still well below the global average, despite doubling in the past decade.

Source: AMFI, Emkay Research

The remarkable growth of AUM over a decade, led to India's mutual fund penetration ratio doubling to approximately 20% in FY25, up from around 9% in FY15.

Source: IMF, IIFA, RBI, AMFI, Emkay Research

India's MF AUM-to-GDP ratio at ~20% remains significantly lower than the global average of ~64%.

India's primary market has seen robust issuance cycles

A robust capital market supports IPO success through strong demand, efficient price discovery, deep liquidity, and lower cost of capital—creating a virtuous cycle for issuers and investors

India's Primary Market (IPO) Capital Issuances

- India's IPO market has seen robust issuance cycles. Most notably in the mid-2000s, in 2017-18, and the since 2020 i.e., post-Covid recovery period
- Total capital raised since 1997-98 till 2025-26 is Rs. 13.38 lakh crores, through 1738 issues

Risks related to Capital Markets Theme

Risk	Mitigation / Positives
• Geopolitical tensions and global trade dynamics can affect capital market liquidity and money flows. • Strict regulations govern capital markets to uphold investor confidence, which may limit opportunities for innovation and growth. • Since capital markets rely heavily on trust, any significant negative event can undermine investor confidence in the short run. • The attractiveness of other global markets can redirect foreign portfolio investments away from Indian markets.	• Domestic resilience of Indian economy would address global concerns over the long term • Ease of doing business imperative by the government has resulted in reduced compliance burden. • With SEBI's strong surveillance, disclosure norms, risk management frameworks, and enforcement mechanisms, has helped reduce frequency and severity of negative events • India being fastest growing large economy with favorable demographics makes India a continued attractive destination for foreign capital

Key Takeaways

A robust and well-regulated capital market is a crucial driver of India's economic growth.

The rise in domestic savings and the growing financialisation of these savings present significant growth potential.

Digitisation initiatives such as Aadhaar, UPI, and data exchanges have transformed India's capital markets by enabling paperless and cashless transactions, which have substantially boosted retail investor participation.

The strong performance of Indian markets, exemplified by the Nifty 500 Index, has attracted increased interest from both domestic and international investors.

Although there has been widespread adoption of financial assets, the market remains underpenetrated compared to global counterparts, indicating considerable opportunities for expansion.
